FEBRUARY 2018 PRAYER GUIDE

Isaiah 40:26 (NIV)

Lift up your eyes and look to the heavens: Who created all these?

He who brings out the starry host one by one and calls forth each of them by name.

Because of his great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing.

3 GRACE COMMUNION PHILIPPINES

For the past few weeks the active Mayon Volcano located in Legazpi City, has been posing a major threat and causing major evacuation in the area. The ash in the air poses a threat to people and livestock. The number of members affected in the area is growing. The church is already responding to help mobilize food and temporary shelter. Please pray that God will avert a powerful eruption, keep the people including our brethren safe, and provide for humanitarian needs in the area.

4 GRACE COMMUNION MEMBERS

Many are experiencing colder weather – greater expense in heating and protection. Let us pray for provision & protection for our brothers and sisters.

5 MONDAY MEDITATION

Colossians 3:12-13

Take a moment to rest in your friendship with Christ, bask in the grace & love he extends to you. Then reflect, who is he calling me to extend grace and love to today?

27 GRACE COMMUNION NASHVILLE, TN

Our Community Café that feeds local families joined us for a movie after services on Dec 31. We served popcorn, candy, and bottle water to guests who wanted to attend the movie. We pray that as we share Christ's love with our community, lives will be surrendered to the Father and transformed by the Spirit.

Peace comes from resting in the truth of who God is (loving, kind, gracious, and always working for our good), and remembering who we are (his beloved children). Take some time to write out some truths about who you are because of Christ.
