

NO RISK, NO REWARD

Matthew 25:14-30

Discussion Questions

1. Greg was being risky riding a used bike downhill, wearing flip flops and no helmet. Share an example of when you were engaging in a risky activity.
2. The story tells us that the Master gives out resources to be managed by his trusted servants. Which servant are you? Did you get $5,000, $2,000, or $1,000?
3. Other than financial, what other resources does Jesus impart to us?
4. How would you evaluate the way you are managing the resources Jesus has given you? Are you multiplying your assets, building on what you have been given, or cautiously guarding what you have been given?
5. Read James 4:17 and discuss how it relates to our story about the servants with the talents.
6. How will you become more involved, and dare I say "risky" with the talents and resources Jesus has entrusted to you?
