

Are Only a Few Going to be Saved?

Luke 13:22-30

Discussion Questions

1. If many are saved what does that tell us about God? If only a few are saved what does that tell us about God? What is your opinion about God and his salvation of humanity?
2. Does God reject people or is it the other way around – people actively choose to reject God?
3. How do you envision “reclining at the table in the Kingdom of God?” What kind of opulence, types of delicacies and amazing relational exchanges will take place?
4. In what ways are you struggling and contending to be in relationship with Jesus?