

KALENGULE KAOMA

GCI Africa Superintendent Chongwe, Zambia

Background:

How many years have you been part of GCI? 40 years from the days of WCG. / What are some stand-out memories from your time in GCI? Ambassador College, Feast of Tabernacles meetings, fellowship time, youth camps, ministerial and leadership conferences. / How did you connect with GCI? Through a member who introduced me to the Plain Truth and other church publications. / What are some of your reasons for choosing to participate with GCI in ministry? Serving God's people, taking part in advancing the kingdom of God, and helping people know about the good news of God's love in sending his beloved son for the salvation of humanity. / What makes you choose to give your time and energy to this ministry? Gifting: passion for God's work and relating with his people. / How has your ministry impacted who you are? Who God is to you? The Holy Spirit has gifted me for the assignment God has given me. God also equipped me in such a way that I can fulfill the needs of the ministry to which I have been called. Therefore, God is everything to me through whom he does his work. / How is your ministry developing? God has started a good work in Africa. He is determined to bring it to a good completion. Although the ministry in Africa has been developing at a slow pace, it is picking up and the potential is awesome by our awesome God. / Who has invested in you to support you in your ministry? God has brought many men and women along my path in ministry. The long list of "investors" in my life include my parents, with special credit to my mother Chileya Mlutula, my first grade teacher Mrs. Konkola, my wife Nsama, our children (Sashi, Mutakwa, Erica, Kamwimbile, Stephin, and Malumbo), and ministers such as the late John Halford, James Henderson, William Bentry, Terry Browning, Joseph Tkach, Allen Bullock, Elinah and Aldrin Mandimika, John Lamb, Alvaro Palacio, Bob Millman, Pastor and Mrs. Joseph and Gladys Mpofu, Emmanuel and Margaret Okai, Gary and Wendy Moore, Tim Maguire, and many more.
