Background:

How do you serve in GCI? Media Director, Media & Communications, GCI Philippines. / How many years have you been part of GCI? Since 1972, so about 47 years. / How did you connect with GCI? Through the Plain Truth magazines, booklets, etc. / What are some of your reasons for choosing to participate with GCI in ministry? I'm passionate about the great commission, and at GCI I have been given the opportunity to participate. / What makes you choose to give your time and energy to this ministry? I believe God gave me the talents and abilities to be able to participate and to be passionate in sharing the gospel through media, especially on the internet. / How has your ministry had an impact on who you are? Because of this passion to share the gospel through the internet, I have spent a great deal of time learning (self-study) how to make websites and how to use social media in reaching out to other people. / How has your ministry had an impact on who God is to you? Because of the internet, I began to learn more about our Triune God through our GCI website and through interaction with our GCI leaders. / How has your ministry developed? It all began in the year 2000-2001 when, as head of Church Support Services, I began an email newsletter called "Update from WCG Philippines" which I sent to our church members and to all our key WCG leaders worldwide. Then I created a simple website for WCG Philippines, after having first seen the main WCG website sometime in 1995. / Who has invested in you to support you in your ministry? Bret Miller helped me in creating the email mailing list. He also gave me suggestions in creating the WCG Philippines website. Our then Regional Director, Bill Sidney, supported me in all of this. Currently, our National Director Eugene Guzon has requested me to continue in this ministry as head of media in the Philippines. I am grateful for his trust and support.
