

FEBRUARY 2021 PRAYER GUIDE

Indeed, when God wants anything accomplished in His Kingdom, He moves men to pray. God is always the initiator. All effectual prayer was moving in the heart of God before ever it began to move in the heart of man. — Arthur Wallis

1 MEDITATION MONDAY

II Peter 2:9 - As the season of Easter Prep (Lent) approaches, there is an invitation for us to reflect deeper on repentance and what that means for each of us. The Greek word for repentance is metanoia. It means a “change of mind.” It is the turning away from the lies of the world and our old thinking patterns, looking towards God and the true reality of the unconditional love within the Trinity and our inclusion in that relationship. God has brought us all into himself, and, as a result, has united us to one another. How have you manipulated others with power and control or allowed others to manipulate you out of your need to earn their love and approval? Where have you shut down and focused on your fears, hurts, bitterness, and unforgiveness? Jesus, highlight for us our destructive thought patterns and show us how to replace those old negative thoughts with new Kingdom life beliefs.

7 GRACE COMMUNION INTERNATIONAL

Eternal Father, you draw us together as one family. Bind us together by your Spirit and give us the love and grace to seek reconciliations. May we join you as people of peace building your kingdom in this hurting world.

8 MEDITATION MONDAY

Matthew 11: 28 - Typically, Lent (the time leading towards Easter) is an appeal for us to engage in self-reflection as we evaluate our current walk with God and consider ways to go deeper. Perhaps you may sense a desire to "return to God." Although we are never separated from God, it can feel at times like we are. So how do we fix this? What is to be done? Here is Jesus' answer: "Come to me and rest." Returning to God simply means resting in the unconditional love of the Trinity and their complete acceptance, just as we are. Jesus invites you to crawl up into the Father's lap and rest. No agendas, no timetables, no obligations – just peaceful rest. Let the Father's song of love remind you that you are God's beloved child; you always have been, and you always will be.

We had a float in the Big Sandy Christmas parade and handed out 100 Ziploc bags along the route, containing a Christmas cookie and a packet of hot chocolate mix. The remaining 100 bags were shared with members who haven't been attending due to the pandemic. This was great interaction with our neighbors and our home-bound members.

14 TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY

Dear Father, we thank you for the fulfilment of your Word. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we behold Christ's glory, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth (John 1:14). We thank you for your divine power that was seen here on earth. It is because of this that we can come together and celebrate you.

15 MEDITATION MONDAY

Philippians 2:12 - Salvation is God's gift to us. It is not something that we have to work for. There isn't anything that we can do to accomplish salvation. In fact, the only thing we ever did to affect our salvation was to kill Jesus. Working out our salvation is entirely different than working for our salvation, but our ongoing participation in Jesus by the "working out" of our salvation is essential. God has given us free will, and our daily choices really do matter. If you grew up believing that your righteousness was based on your own performance, then learning to trust in God's love, goodness, and mercy may seem a bit fearful, yet the Lord beckons us to simply trust. Lord, we renounce any beliefs that require us to perform for our salvation, as we surrender our hearts to abide in your saving love and grace.

16 INTERNATIONAL MARRIAGE WEEK

God of love, we thank you for the sacrament of marriage and how it reflects your commitment to us. We pray that you fill those who have entered this covenant with the strength to honor the promise they have made to each other, to love each other as Christ loves the church. We pray for your supernatural healing and joy to permeate these relationships.

17 ASH WEDNESDAY

As we prepare for the Easter season, we remember our need for a savior and pray: "Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love. According to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones that you have crushed rejoice. Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me." Psalm 51:1-2;8-10

LAKE MALAWI, MALAWI

22 MEDITATION MONDAY

I Corinthians 1:9 - God's desire for us is to truly live out of our relationship with Jesus. How do we do this? By completely trusting God with our whole life. This requires us to let go of old paradigms and sincerely believe in God's love and goodness. It is only when we rest in our relationship with Jesus that we are able to participate in expressing God's heart in any given situation. When we learn to let go, our co-union with God allows his power to work in and through us. This was God's design for us from the beginning. We are created in the image of a God who shares only goodness, mercy, and love. We are invited to play, laugh, and have fun within that goodness, and splash as much as we can onto others. Lord, help us to cast off the shackles that we put on ourselves and remember who we were created to be.
