

PIERRE DUGUAY

Assistant Pastor - GC Montreal Quebec, Canada

Tell us about your role in GCI.

I serve as an assistant pastor and the Love Avenue champion in the GC Montreal congregation in Quebec, Canada. I welcome all the members and the guests at our church services, and I organize activities with our team to reach out to our neighbors.

What makes you a good fit?

I am friendly with all the people I meet, and I take an interest in getting to know them better. I have the passion to serve and dedicate my time in this ministry. With my positive attitude, I like to encourage people to love one another and to get to know Jesus better.

What are the challenges of your role as Avenue champion?

We live in a secular society, and it's not easy to build friendships between our members and neighbors.

What are some core values that guide your life and influence your approach to ministry?

I ask Jesus for his love, his faith, and his wisdom every day to express the love of Jesus to my neighbors. I encourage my Christian brothers and sisters to do the same.

1.

What is something people don't know about you?

I'm a retired industrial air pollution measurement specialist. I still take part in a few projects from time to time to help my former employer. Over the past 25 years, I'm pleased to have contributed to reducing industrial air pollution in my province.

2.

What else is important for our readers to know?

I preach from time to time, and I serve on the GCI Canadian board as secretary. I translate all the main articles of the GCI Equipper and the GCI Update issues to French.

Although the Bible has been translated into many languages, I think it's also important that disciples can read other Christian material in their mother tongues. For example, it would be great if we could translate our We Believe series into more languages.

3.

What do you want people to know about living in Montreal?

In Montreal, you can make friends with immigrants from many countries who speak many languages. We also have a variety of good restaurants serving diverse types of meals. This situation gives me the opportunity to get to know different cultures without having to travel outside the country.

“I hope and pray that God will inspire people from many nations to do this work and that he will bless this ministry allowing us to share the gospel with many persons worldwide.”
