

AMIYO BACHER

Facilitator

Tell us about your role.

My roles are a servant of God, facilitator, church planter, and equipper of GCI Bangladesh's leaders so that they can equip and empower our brethren.

What skills do you bring to the role?

I bring to the role love, respect, and good relationships.

What makes you a good fit?

I love to meet with our brethren personally, listen to their concerns, and pray for them. Now we have 85 families of GCI Bangladesh. I encourage them to love one another and praise God together through Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit.

What excites you about this role?

Our brethren and pastors are very faithful with dedicated hearts for our triune God and the church. This fills me with excitement and joy.

What are the challenges?

Some challenges are language, limited resources, cultural barriers, and limited training.

What are some core values that guide your life and influence your approach to ministry?

Calling, time management, and family guide my life and influence my approach to the ministry. My wife, Christina, my children, Mark (age 13) and Grace (age 3), are very important to me.

Get to Know Amiyo

1.

For what are you most grateful?

My family and our GCI Bangladesh brethren.

2.

Favorite scripture?

Revelation 3:20. This verse reminds me that Jesus Christ is my parents.

3.

Describe your perfect day:

I wake up very early in the morning. Then I feed our quail birds. Afterwards, I help my son to get to the school at 7:30 am. At noon, I clean the quail farm. In the afternoon, I visit and meet our brethren in their houses. At night, we enjoy family prayer and dinner.

4.

How do you feel close to God?

I feel close to God during our daily family prayers and my quiet time with God.

5.

Struggle or life lesson you would like to share:

I am a doer, but sometimes I am slow to do until due date.
