

Devaraj Ramoo

Tell us about your role in GCI.

I was ordained an elder in 2006 and since 2018, have been serving as the pastor of GCI Malaysia.

What skills do you bring to the role that make you a good fit?

Before I began serving as the pastor, I was a teacher in a government secondary school as head of the language department. I served as a teacher for 39 years before retiring in 2018.

What do you want people to know about working here?

Serving in GCI Malaysia is a pleasure. Our members are really family oriented, and we share a closeness that has been nurtured for decades.

What excites you about this role?

The role of a pastor has been an enriching experience for me. And relating to people and serving is a privilege.

What are the challenges?

I realized that my role as a pastor requires me to be knowledgeable in the Scriptures. God led me to meet a professor from a Christian university who encouraged me to take up further studies in theology. This led me to take up a master's and doctorate program in ministry, which I completed in November of 2025.

What are some core values that guide your life and influence your approach to ministry?

Never stop learning. Age is no barrier to learning. Serving God means continuous learning.

Can you share a memorable experience or testimony from your time in this role?

In late 2023, I was struck with a serious illness. The Lord God brought me out of that illness and restored me fully. I was able to continue serving and complete my studies. Our God hears prayers.

What is something people don't know about you?

I enjoy a good workout. It keeps me youthful.

What's a simple blessing you're grateful for recently?

Good health is a blessing that I never take for granted. We can have all the wealth and fame but without good health we cannot function or serve at our best.

What hobbies or pastimes bring you the most joy?

During the COVID-19 epidemic in 2021, I began the GCI Aid program where I partnered with donors and philanthropists to send aid to the public who were most affected. We sent food aid to affected families and the homeless. Now, GCI Aid continues, and we help families in need and also an orphanage in the city where I live.

What else is important for our readers to know?

I believe it's important to take time to call someone who lives alone or to the elderly. Never be so busy that you cannot find time to say hello or tell someone that they matter. I also believe it's important to spend time with friends; never isolate yourself. Time with friends is time well spent; it rejuvenates one. Our triune God is one friend who never leaves us or forsakes us.
